

I Kerry Ahern, will to Lori Lakey the baby sweater I made in needlecraft and to Diana Davis my gym clothes.

I Ken Anning, will to Mr. A.T. & Mr. E., my hair; D.B., a weight machine; Mr.C., a new secretary for 4th period; Mr. R.H., my swimming trunks; T.C., $30.00.

I Joan Arbesman, will to S.F., a long distance phone call; D.T. a box of raisins; S.R., more track meets; Miss Kleekamp, my Monday evenings from 6:30 - 8:30; P.V., a marriage sooner in the future; Mrs. Moran, all my thanks for making my years at RHS a lot better and easier.

I Sue Baker, will to Bobby, wish come true and my best; C.S., shrinker and life-long friendship; C.S., no more fights; D.M., luck with Bruce; A.M. and G.W., fun at college; M.B., friendship and accessories; Nancy, successful marriage; Lyndon, girlfriend; Jean, fun; A.R., R. M., N.C., M.B., D.A., lunch partner; my parents and Mr. Fenske, thanks.

I Joyce Balmer, will to R.S., Mrs. A.; L.S., a license; C.P., a '65 GTO; C.V., a wonderland for her and Alice; N.C., a triumph; C.K., a wedding gown; L.T., a donut; L.C., a roll of tape for English; J.V., a 140 take; Y.G., a new bathroom; Mr. Maez, candy bars.

I Maria Banuelos, will to Linda Banuelos my ability to study and participate in school activities. To Maria Guzman I leave my old tennis shoes and my beverage and my can of Right Guard. To Pat Durate I leave my ability to come to school everyday and study.

I Alan Biernesser, will to Mr. Ellis my height and my dirty tennis shoes; to Bob Churchill my ability to get traffic tickets; to Mike Gimbel (who already has a good start) my ability to blow up engines; to Don Boothe, my hair.

I Cathie Blassman, will to Sandy & Berna, responsibility; to Miss Kindig an everlasting friendship and her own Doritos factory; to V.L., a trophy to the "World's Worst Loser"; to Janice, the capability to write more poems to Chuck; to Betty, a year's supply of yogurt; to Silvia F. & Mary Lou, I will sincerity.

I Don Boothe, will to 1968 Varsity Football team, all the luck they need. To Mr. Ellis, my hair growing tonic. To C.S., myself forever. To Willis, all CIF. To D.C., a pair of swim fins. To M.G., something new. To D.B., all my apologies, and B.C., my best. To the school, another me!