

I, Clint Frits, will to Chris G.-box vinegrotto; Andy R.-my P.E. clothes; Gail C.-the Irish Rovers and Leonard Nimoy; Karen G.-G.C., Joey Bishop's Show and Rabbits; Ed S.-various protest buttons and street signs; Gary C.-Cow Country and miraculous football talent; most of all to Mr. Blattner and all the others I leave many fond memories and much gratitude.

I, Cheri Godberry, will to Mrs. Lewis-my hard working energy; Mrs. Tausch-my get up and go; Mr. Carl Fisher-my most treasured thing-my personality; and Miss Valleri Ann Metrick, my best friend, all my left over gum and the use of her own locker without my books in it.

I, Brian Gaines, will to whom it may concern, Try not to live past your years. There is nothing more for us to hear. We try to think beyond our need, for we were born among the seed. Take this bag, within it see, your face is mine-we all are from. Good-bye Rogesmead High.

I, Armando Garcia, will to Laura-16 years and some brains. To Marylou-my old track shoes. To Radine "Love is Blue". To Amelia-a set of boxing gloves. To Sam Merkel my old sweat suit. To Jerri my senior picture. To John an antiwhip gun. To Gary some brains and photography lessons. To Ron my hair.

I, Jose Garcia, will to Robert Valenzuela my summer workouts; Mike O'Brien a decent mile time; my mileage to Mr. Tapp's X-country team; Mr. Swenberg some no nudo; Kent Martyn my spanish grade; Charlie Cowm a haircut; Mr. Rosine better Physics students; Mark Akaba my great baseball ability.

I, Ray Gard, will to Andy a happy Friday night, Don a chain of McDonald stores; Steve a fleet of Camaros; Mike a car; Bob fifty feet; Paul a six foot pizza; J.C. all the happiness in the world; Mrs. Young a year's supply of chewing gum; Gil good humor; Coaches football championship; Joe Terazawa Lisa.

I, Violet Gates, will to Emily-a new diaper pin; Vanessa-a box of broken tees; Mickey-all my cork grease; Mr. Hensley-all my appreciation; Betty-a clarinet solo; Debbie-another class of taking notes; Barbara-more undecided car passengers; Irene-a hole in one.

I, Bob Gentry, will to Mr. Templeman, more great printers like me. To Mr. Fenske a good student help; to Mr. Jessup, a great track team; to C.S., Kathy; to B.S. girls; to Mrs. Allen, a good student help; to all seniors, best of luck; to Carol Dodson, the guy who loves her most: Ma.

I, Marylou Goforth, will to Radine, someone to love; Toys, my fun years after Graduation; Colleen, Don's TRUE LOVE; Don E. our close friendship; Armando, my blonde hair and the lights; Rex my tail; Bob, a crash diet; Steve, a change of mind, (U.S.C.); Chris K., one or the other; Bob C., another first period; R.T. myself; Jessup, Squire.