

I, Robert Serrano, will to Joyce Balmer and Mrs. August--Lee Cosner, who can cause more trouble and embarrassment to anyone. Mrs. Sandys--a new desk. Mr. Rosine, a year's supply of sugar.

I, Bob Shealy, will to Coach Porter my sideburns, Mr. Benscoter all my natural writing ability, to Mr. Hinkins I will life time tickets to the Joe Pyne Show, to C. Monzingo I will my good humor, to my local draft board and the world, I will peace and love, to C. Sinclair, the 605 freeway.

I, Rudy Sigarlaki, will to Sue Tuck, my brand new sewing box; to Mike Carrillo, my ukelele; to Mr. Maez, a pak of gum; to Cindy Meyer, lots of happiness; to Yvonne Braunwalder, a freckle; to Fred Lovio, my knowledge of basketball; to the Varsity Football Coaching staff, the championship.

I, Craig Sinclair, will to Mr. Lynch my T.V. troubles; my hair to Mr. Kupper; my lab drawer to Mr. Rosine; Mr. Peters my cathexis; Mr. Hinkins my creative writing; to Gisele her own locker; Eva S. a pack of gum; W. Fenske a dirty patio; Rabbit, Tio H.; Cathy M., myself and my love.

I, Jim Slagoski, will to Fred R., a woman with values to match his; Sue M., a totally uninhibited nature, a man with money, and anything else she may want; Linda D., Herman; Ray G., a night out with Jean G.; Lily S. a Betty Boop doll. Good-bye.

I, Colleen Smith, will to D.E. a successful career and my love, D.M.-B.E. forever, A.M.-a decision on places to go, S.B.-many more smiling days, C.S.-no more annual pages and B.K.'s help, G.W.-a smile, D.E.-more and more anniversaries, M.G.-no lies.

I, Nancy Sowell, will to K.S.-twenty pounds and a life size statue of Twiggy, S.R.-an autographed picture of the General, S.F.-a book of the finer points of tennis, B.T.-1000 pictures of M.S., Mrs. Schaefer-my dirty leotards, Mr. M.-a list of 200 ways to play Tom Dooley.

I, Sandi Stanley, will to Detri Wortham-my wonderful English accent; Doug Custance-my new lease on life and the happiness he tries hard to deserve; Jay Kimball-all of the Charlie Brown happinesses in the world.

I, Barbara Starrett, will to B.R., luck with Al?; I.C., napkins; F.C., R.M.; my brother, four years of R.H.S.; M.L., another year of attendance; R.R., my old leotards; W.K., psychodelic drawings; J.S., life with C.B.; S.B., a good car and job; and to myself, love with whoever comes my way.