

I, Barbara Tortorelli, 'ill to my third period P.E. class, one year of rest and relaxation at Norwalk; to Mr. Peter's Government class, thanks for a wonderful time; to Mrs. Rechief's class of seniors, good eating; to the special Junior boys like R. C., R. S., stay handsome?; to the "GROUP", best of luck always; and to all my teachers, my deepest appreciation, especially Miss Stevens.

I, Laura Toy, Will to Dave Norton, my heart; I will Cathy Valla, another '58 pink Chevy; I will Bertkey Bassip, my gorilla; I will Kathy O'Donnell, the mole on my chin; I will Chris Price, chicken stew; I will Joyce Balmer, my older Brother's tapes; and I will Joanne Uyeno all my old-ticket stubs.

I, Carmen Trujillo, 'ill to Lorraine Santoyo, my cousins; Bob Walsh, his nonsense jokes; Cathy Valli, my whippers and beeps; Marcia Jenkins, my Tugaloo; Butch Burbank, my mother's driving ability; Andy Rios, a kiss; Gilbert Picazzo, my frustration jokes; and Linda Davis, my cousin the Varsity cheerleader.

I, Joyce Tucker, 'ill to Loretta Ghan, many thanks for all she has done also best wishes in married life; to Robbie, my life and love forever; to Mr. Clarkson, my appreciation for his unending patience; to R.H.S., my deepest thanks and fondest memories.

I, Paul Urias, 'ill to Mrs. August, a copy of "Valley fo the Dolls"; my sombrero and shades to Mr. Templeman; to the band, some soul; to John Morris, una patada; to Mike Melland, a chicano flag.

I, Joanne Uyeno, 'ill to Joyce, my driving ability; Chris, a new laugh; Cathy, good-looking jaws; Laura, a louder laugh; Cathy, more money for her car; Sue & Bobby, good times; Gayle, a replos of Hanna; the gang in the Student Store, fun & games; and Marylou, my going to Japanese School.

I, Penny Vargas, 'ill to M. H., all my love; J. A., another like; G. V., a date with his girlfriend; to D. J., the right guy; Miss Kindig, our Freshman class to remember; Laura T., a trip to England; Miss Stevens, all my gratitude for helping us through the years.

I, Carla Vaughn, 'ill to Suzi, a racing form & Italian cooking lessons; to Patti, licorice & Malibu; to Chris, a large mirror & sewing lessons; to Sandie, a pumpkin colored Porche; to Alyene, Tony & a tan; and to Linda, Chris an Italian.

I, Paul Vienna, 'ill to Colleen, a bottle of sunshine; Candy, ability to drive; Mrs. Young, courage; Caren, an Italian boy; Mr. Porter, ferocious season; Mr. Ellis, a tougher job at coaching; Steve, my good looks; Boothe, a square football helmet; Cindy, all of a certain Italians love and his football cleats.